

Iron County Register

Entered in the Post Office at Ironton, Mo., as Second Class Matter.

VOLUME LIII. NUMBER 3

Ironton, Missouri,
THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1919.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The strawberries are gone.
Fifteen cents for a shave after July 1st.

The thermometer registered 92 degrees Monday.

Bean Poles and Tomato Sticks for sale by
O. R. CROW & BRO.

A new lot of Gingham, 16 cents per yard.
SINGER'S STORE.

Preaching in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

Wanted—A girl to do general housework. Apply to Mrs. L. A. Davis, Arcadia, Mo.

The wheat harvest in Iron county will be well under way the latter part of the week.

The first home-grown peaches were on the market Monday. Clings, 30 cents a dozen.

Mr. Schaefer is thinking of presenting a picture show one night in the week at Bellevue.

It is said that the Ironton Presbyterian church is about to secure the services of a pastor.

The Commencement Exercises at Arcadia Tuesday afternoon were very pleasing and largely attended.

Some very fine cherries from the Lueddecke orchard have been on the market the past week, and quite a lot of them.

Lost—Between Bellevue and Ironton, Saturday, a pair of eye glasses. Finder return to this office and receive reward.

Found—Near Iron Mountain, June 8, automobile license tag No. 113,344, 1919. Owner can have same by calling at this office.

Baldwin Bros. have sold some of the machinery in the hub factory to parties in Dexter, Mo., where it was shipped this week.

Our weather has been intensely hot the past few days. A rain would help the gardens and the meadows, but the wheat does not need it.

Paul P. Hinchey of De Soto was chosen Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Missouri at a recent meeting of the Grand Lodge.

Rev. V. O. Penley will conduct service—consisting of morning prayer with sermon—in Saint Paul's church next Sunday at 11 o'clock. All heartily welcomed.

Mr. Adolph Lopez, accompanied by Miss Alma Fletcher and Bryan Ringo, came from St. Louis Sunday in Mr. Lopez's car. Mr. Lopez will return to St. Louis to-day.

Proctor Shular and sister went to St. Louis Friday. Proctor expects to remain for a while as he has employment in a smelter in Illinois. Miss Willye will return after a short visit.

For Sale—A gentle mare, well broken to both saddle and driving, six years old. Also a "Crown" Organ, good as new. Will be sold cheap.

Mrs. H. F. Acres, Pilot Knob, Mo.

To Miss Elizabeth C. Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Nichols, the editor is indebted for an announcement of the Commencement Exercises at Ursuline Academy, June 17th.

Ben Russell, colored, after an absence of ten months with the Am. E. F. in France, arrived home last Friday. Ben was much pleased to get through the big war without a scratch and land safely back home.

E. R. "Happy" Curtis arrived in Ironton last week after an absence of fourteen months in France, where he served as an ambulance driver in the 20th Division. He looks well and hearty after his experience over seas.

The Ironton School Board has employed W. A. Brookshire, who has taught the past few years at Winona, Mo., as Superintendent of the Ironton schools. Prof. Brookshire is now attending a summer school in Chicago.

The REGISTER is indebted to Mr. R. L. McLaughrey for a mess of new potatoes—the first of the season—presented last Friday. They were grown in Mr. McLaughrey's garden on the mountain and were delicious, indeed. Fine.

Ed Hickman of Des Arc was in Ironton Tuesday. Mr. Hickman has been employed in the steel mills at Granite City, Ill., for the past seventeen years, but has been home for several weeks because of the mills being closed.

The editor is in receipt of a most interesting and pleasing letter from Mrs. Nettie O'Neal Bellis of Los Angeles, California. This most estimable lady's many friends will be glad to hear that she contemplates an early visit to Missouri.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Patton came from St. Louis Saturday in the Doctor's Oakland, returning to the city Monday morning. Dr. Patton has decided to locate in St. Louis and specialize in the treatment of the eye, ear, nose and throat.—Farmington Times.

Mrs. W. W. Strother and daughter, Miss Zella, were down from De Soto, over Sunday visiting friends. Mr. Strother is in the auto business at Piedmont, but they do not want to move there, so may move to Fredericktown.—Fredericktown Democrat News.

Hornersville Enterprise: "A. J. Langdon, Sr., on last Monday purchased the Scion Davis tract of land near the school house. There is 34 acres in the tract. The price paid was $300 per acre. The land will be laid out in town lots and put on the market. Ten acres will probably be put on at once and the other this fall. The land is planted to cotton and if an agreement can be reached as to the worth of the crop, ten acres will be thrown out and laid off at once."

Sheriff Blue Sunday night arrested one Elmer Cantrell, a negro, whose home is said to be in De Soto, on the charge of boot-legging. It is alleged that Cantrell has made several trips here retailing booze at $3.00 a pint. He will have a trial before Squire Rasche Friday.

Supt. N. B. Henry, Jr., and wife, recently of Jenk, Okla., spent several days visiting the former's parents here, after which Mrs. Henry visited her mother at Poplar Bluff and the Prof. went to Chicago University, where he will spend the year.—Bismarck Gazette.

Mr. Loren F. Knight, who lives on Marble Creek, was a caller at this office Thursday last. Mr. Knight says he estimates that he will have about three hundred bushels of peaches this year. His orchard is on the high lands and the fruit was not all killed by the frost in May. He says his early peaches will ripen about July 10th.

Mr. J. B. Holloman is circulating a petition addressed to the County Court asking for the formation of the proposed special road district in the Hogan country. Before the court can act the petition must be signed by owners of half of the real estate in the proposed district. There are about 10,000 acres of land in the district.

Fletcher & Barger are expecting another shipment of Ford cars this week. The supply does not seem to be equal to the demand. Although the factory at Detroit is now said to be turning out 3,000 cars a day the plant is 100,000 cars behind its orders. After August 1st, it is announced starters will be supplied with all cars when desired.

Messrs. A. G. and Jesse D. O'Neal, Misses Lela, Marian and Blanche O'Neal, drove over from Franklins Sunday afternoon and spent a short time with friends in Ironton. Jesse, who is in the Navy, is home on short furlough. He presented the editor with a box of most excellent cigars, which he secured on a recent cruise to Cuba. We assure him of our appreciation.

About two weeks ago some one stole a revolver from the residence of Olin Jones in north Ironton. Certain facts directed suspicion toward Ralph Conley, 18 years old, a cousin of Jones, who lives in the Lead Belt, as the guilty party. Sheriff Blue at once got on the trail and Saturday took Conley in custody at Flat River. Conley protests his innocence and is in jail awaiting a preliminary. The prisoner, it is said, has a very unsavory court record in St. Francois county.

An adjourned term of circuit court was held Tuesday. Ross Smith, colored, pleaded guilty to the charge of burglarizing B. N. Brown's store and was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary. Ralph Conley entered a plea of guilty to stealing a revolver and was sentenced to three years in the Reform School. Harry Holland pleaded guilty to carrying concealed weapons and was fined $100 and costs; paroled. Court adjourned Tuesday evening.

Mr. Thos. P. Fitz of Des Arc is in receipt of the following letter from Mr. W. C. Williams, Secretary to Gov. Gardner: "Responding to yours of the 9th instant relative to pensions for ex-Confederate soldiers, permit me to advise the Governor has approved the appropriation in the sum of $270,000 to pay pensions to ex-Confederates for 1917 and 1918, and vetoed an appropriation of $260,000 to pay such pensions for the years 1919 and 1920. I suggest you take the matter up with the State Auditor."

While driving his Wyllis-Knight car in Arcadia shortly before noon Tuesday Mr. S. P. Ringo struck Peter Algier, Jr., knocking him down. Algier was walking along the road, driving a team hitched to a hay baler. As the automobile was passing the team took fright; in endeavoring to control the horses Mr. Algier stepped toward the center of the road and was struck by the fender of the car. The young man was in a dazed condition for a while after the accident but it is not thought he was seriously hurt. It seems that he was under treatment recently for some trouble or weakness in one of his hips. The car hit him on this hip and he suffered considerable pain for a while.

Farmington News: "John T. Burks, of Charleston, on last Saturday leased from Wm. J. Elledge the famous Iron Mountain ranch of more than 20,000 acres in the western part of St. Francois county and the eastern part of Iron county. He gets all the farming privileges. Several timber contracts have been made with other parties and these are not affected by the terms of the lease. Mr. Elledge also reserves all the mining rights and the use of the buildings, except one residence, east of the Missouri Pacific railroad track. Mr. Burks gets possession of the big farm at once, except that part of it rented for the season, and of these lands as soon as the growing crops are harvested. The lease runs until August 1, 1920, and the rental consideration is $120,000 a year."

A reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch who was sent to Centerville to report the trial of Bruce Cameron, when the case was taken to Reynolds County from St. Louis on a change of venue, wrote up his trip at length in the Post-Dispatch of June 1st. The following, referring more particularly to Iron County, is reproduced: "The principal attraction in Glover, which has three houses, one store and a post-office, is G. W. Scoggin. Scoggin is Postmaster, runs the store and occupies one of the houses. He has lived there 47 years and has been Postmaster all the time. It makes no difference whether the national administration is Republican or Democratic, Scoggin is Postmaster. He couldn't resign if he wanted to because there isn't anybody else to take the job. Scoggin finds time to talk about the Iron Mountain Railroad (now the Missouri Pacific) between distributing the mail and tending to his store. He isn't friendly to the railroad. In the first place it hasn't even a sidetrack at Glover, and it won't stop any of its trains there except the local, which goes each way once a day, and the local freight. Scoggin has other objections to the railroad, but the party didn't have time to listen to them. Scoggin has a son, Luther, who has a Ford car which he runs between Glover and Centerville, or between Glover and any place else anybody wants to go. There is another car run by Will Huff, who lives out in the country a piece, and the Goff family has two cars. These provide sufficient accommodations for the ordinary travel to Centerville. The road to Centerville is not a good road. It goes way up and way down, and winds around, making sharp turns, with high hills on one side, and deep, unguarded ravines on the other. It goes over rocks and through mud-holes and has an abundant supply of ruts. If one is fortunate and his car doesn't break down, he can get over the 18 miles in two hours. A driver of one of the cars on the trip across from Glover all unconsciously had his little joke on the newspaper men. He informed them that he had "an own cousin" who once was a newspaper man and asked if anybody in the party knew him. All three did and one volunteered the statement that he was a bright fellow and a good newspaper man. "Well," said the driver, "he ought to be good for that. He never'd work none." Luther Scoggin drove the car in which Cameron and his counsel, former Governor Major and Thomas B. Harvey, rode. On the way Harvey, who is very proud of his two children, was telling of some of their feats, when Cameron asked Scoggin if he had any children. "Oh, yes, I've got several," replied the driver. "How many?" asked Cameron. "Twelve," replied Scoggin, "but that's not many for this country. The fellow who lives on this farm we're going by has 17." Cameron said Harvey had nothing further to say about his two. In the nine miles from Glover to Hunt's Farm, a very pretty fishing resort, there are four houses. In the nine miles from Hunt's Farm to Centerville there are none, the road winding through the dense woods of oak and pine, over hills and dipping down into deep valleys."

Johanna Enlists.

Mary Pickford plays the part of a little girl on a lonely farm who is simply dying for a beau—the only fellow she ever saw that she liked was a "beautiful" brakeman who went by very fast.

Then a camp opens up near by, and the farm is literally swarming with beaux in no time. Mary thinks she is not pretty enough and takes a milk bath, and one of the officers happens to call at a very awkward moment—you know how it is on a farm—no proper arrangements and all that—still, see this great Artcraft picture for yourself.

Our Soldier Boys.

For two years now our boys have been going away to camp and across the sea, into the light, and then in the Army of Occupation. Some will never return. But a large number of them are coming back and by July 4th the largest share of them will be home. This will be the greatest 4th of July that has ever come to us. We haven't only fought for ourselves, but have helped to liberate the world. It is truly fitting that we celebrate this year, and we are going to celebrate. The boys themselves, assisted by the citizens, are going to have a big picnic at Goulding's Park. There will be setting up exercises by the soldiers, close order drill, skirmishes and an effort by them to show us some of the many maneuvers through which they went, and which we have all been wanting to see. It is hoped that every man in the county who was entitled to wear the uniform of a soldier, sailor or marine, will be on hand to take part. There will be lots of eats, and all can have a good time. Be sure and be on hand.

Elmer Polk writes from Camp Mills, Long Island: "Here I am back in the good old U. S. A. We made the trip to Brest in box cars, with 35 men to a car, but they were American cars and had plenty of room. They are quite an improvement over the old French cars I have ridden in. When we got to Brest we had a hot feed of beans and coffee, then hiked about five miles out to one of the famous 'Rest Camps' in France. Got there at 3 A. M., but were up at 6:30 for roll call. We staid in Brest eight days. That week was taken up with inspections and the hundreds of things to be done before a soldier can go on a ship. Our outfit passed fine. Just a few men were kept for various reasons. We loaded on lighters that carried us out to the vessel, the water not being deep enough for the big boats to come up to the pier. The next morning they pulled anchor and we started on the homeward voyage. Every one was on deck to watch the shores of France fade slowly away. France is a beautiful country (when it does not rain) and her people have made wonderful sacrifices, but I guess it is not the land for me. The weather most of the way across was good. Some of the boys were seasick, but I made the trip fine. Guess I am an old salt. But I do not like water travel, at least not in army style. We saw a few sharks, two whales, and a few ships. Early yesterday morning we anchored outside the harbor. When I came on deck it was so foggy we could not see anything. After breakfast everyone got on deck as soon as possible to get a good place to see the sights and get the first glimpse of our sweetheart that we have been pining to see for most a year and a half. At nine thirty the fog cleared up enough to haul anchor and we started up the harbor. We were about three hours pulling in. When we did hail the Goddess of Liberty the ship went wild. The Mayor's committee of welcome met us about ten thirty with a band and escorted us into the docks. When we pulled in there another band was waiting for us. It was a great welcome. I will likely be here a few days, and from here will be sent to Camp Sherman, at Chillicothe, Ohio, and to Akron from there. I'll stay a day with Ray there and then be right home."

We give below the names of some of the boys who have returned. There are many others, but we have been unable to get their names.

Walter Deboard, Co. L, 3d Battalion, 88th Division; Des Arc.

Andrew Yates, 42d Field Artillery, Medical Detachment, 89th Division; Pilot Knob.

George Sohn, 124 Field Artillery, Battery F, 33d Division; Pilot Knob.

William Thurman, 349 Infantry, 88th Division; Pilot Knob.

George Henderson, Co. L, 350 Infantry, 88th Division; Pilot Knob.

Harvey Medley, 350 Machine Gun Co., 88th Division; Des Arc.

N. A. King, Co. B, 340th Bn., M. G., 89th Division; Brunot, Mo. Fought in St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne.

Private Chas. F. Baird, Medical Corps, Evac. Hospital No. 25, A. E. F.; Arcadia, Mo.

Epworth League, Sunday, 7:15 P. M.

Preaching, Sunday evening, 8, by Presiding Elder O. H. Duggins.

Church Conference and Social Wednesday night, June 25th, 7:30. Union church. The Social will be held on Union church lawn. All Methodists and friends of the church are requested to be present.

Union Children's Day Service and Basket Dinner, Sunday, June 29th, at the Methodist Assembly Grounds.

The Fort Hill and Union Methodist Sunday Schools will have a Union Children's Day service Sunday morning June 29th, beginning at 10 o'clock. Look for further announcement next week.

Our Epworth League has taken on a new life, it seems. Last Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock there were some twenty Leaguers who met at Union church where conveyances had been provided to take them to Bismarck to attend the District League Institute and the St. Francois County League Meeting. It was quite an enjoyable trip for the young folk and the meeting was a great inspirational meeting for them. Sunday evening our League was quite a live one. Just pay this League a visit, young people, and no doubt it will convince you that it is just the very place you are looking for. They are planning for their regular socials, and, no doubt, great things are to come from the League.

Remember the Communion Service Sunday morning. All Christians are invited to partake.

H. E. STONE, Pastor.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

The undersigned, administrator of the estate of Wm. Belcher, deceased, will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, at the late residence of the deceased, in Graniteville, Iron County, Missouri, on SATURDAY, JUNE 28th, 1919, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M., the following property: Three-Room Cottage and Outbuildings; one Jersey Cow and Cat, Mare and Colt, 6 head of Hogs, a lot of Chickens, Household and Kitchen Furniture, and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Tnos. N. MARR,
Public Administrator.

Baptist News and Notes.

The Rev. Mr. Cooper, of Dexter, made an interesting and practical talk to the young people last Sunday evening. The pastor is hoping that all who were present to hear will also heed.

Miss Myrtes Hammond, the president of the B. Y. P. U., was the recipient of a farewell which took the form of a picnic to the heights at Graniteville Monday evening. The young people evidently enjoyed the ride, the stroll over the granite boulders, and the sandwiches, ice cream and cake. Even the pastor and his wife seemed to forget that they were no longer young. Miss Hammond will leave soon for New York City. She will be greatly missed. We wish for her health, happiness and usefulness.

Thirty-four per cent was the gain at the Bible School last Sunday over the previous Sunday. This is encouraging, but we have not reached the Superintendent's goal. Let nothing short of providential hindrance keep you from the Bible School next Sunday.

The members of the "Convention Bible Class" seemed to enjoy the meeting at the home of Mrs. Bush last Friday.

All the regular services next Sunday.

A. B. BUSH.

Notice to Debtors.

I have purchased the interest of my brother, E. C. Tual, in the firm of Tual Bros., merchants. All persons indebted to said firm are earnestly requested to settle their accounts without delay.

Crane Pond Items.

As I have failed to see any items from our neighborhood for a good while, thought I would send in some.

Mr. Ernest Miller and sister, Miss Ola, are going to St. Louis Sunday. Mr. Miller goes to finish his course at school, while Miss Ola intends to visit her sister, Mrs. Flavia Reubottom.

Proctor Shular made a call at Mr. Joe Selinger's Sunday.

Miss Mildred Reed is expected home from Mississippi soon.

Friday, 13th, was the seventh birthday of Master Gould Miller. He received several handsome presents.

Mrs. J. N. Thompson took about seven gallons of fine early bunch beans to town Saturday. Mrs. Thompson certainly has a fine garden and everything is always so early. She sold 29 gallons of early peas so far this season. The early stuff is what brings the price. Mrs. Nettie Pannebecker and Mrs. Ruth Thompson also have fine gardens.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sutton, Saturday, June 7, 1919, a fine baby. All are doing well.

What about the 4th of July picnic? We have failed to see anything about it. Surely something should be given for our soldier boys, as they have done a lot for us.
